WOMAN TRIES TO YOUNG WOMAN SHOOT A LAWYER FOUCHT THIEF

George W. Gallinger's Office in Temple Court and Draws a Big Revolver.

FIGHTS WITH HIM AND A CLERK UNTIL DISARMED.

Makes Inquiries About a Legacy, of Which He Says He Knows Nothing-Court Fixes Bail at $500.

When George W. Gallinger, a lawyer out for the intervention of a clerk who explained. "My head hurts and I am heard the altercation and came to his so unstrung that every effort is pain-temployer's rescue.

The woman says she is Mrs. Eleanor "When my sister left the house attorney: "What about the legacy?" "What legacy?" inquired Gallinger.

Then before the attorney had time to longed to the household.

in quieting the woman. He took her to to me to be an iron chisel. Centre Street Court. She was wed with an attempt to shoot to kill. The revolver was a seven-chamed affair with the look of a sixteennch gun about the barrel.

Triede to Kill, She Said. "I tried to kill him." said Mrs. Hansch as she was led to Magistrate Deuel's

In court Mrs. Hanesch said that Gallinger had been intrusted by her with an estate left by her grandfather in Austria and valued at $50,000. She said never made an accounting, although ive years have elapsed since she put Meses Grossman, counsel for Gallinger enied that the woman had ever given any such business to his client. Magistrate Deuel held the woman in default of $500 bail and put her in the hands of a probation officer. and it is the general opinion that she is suffering from mental derangement.

Lawyer Describes Attack. this statement to a reporter of The me. Evening World:

"Mrs. Henesch is a seamstress, who used to do work for my family. She had numerous customers and would go from one to the otner to do sewing. I had not seen her, nor had my wife, in nearly three years. It was for about that period of time before that that she had worked for us. She never had any legacy that I ever heard of, and I don't believe she ever had any law business.

"I can't understand why the woman should have picked me out for her crazy notions to centre on. I have been in practice thirty years and never had any trouble before, yet I suppose there will be people who will say. 'Weil, I wonder if he didn't get that poor woman's money, after all.'"

The attack on Miss Moran was reported to "police of the West Thirtieth the traiting horizon for the wint should not seen her station. Miss Moran's challend shown he keralls. She says that he was brown ekinned smooth faced, tall and slight of figure. The reliable that he was brown ekinned smooth faced and neck will lead to his arrest.

Miss Moran's twenty years old. She makes her home with Mrs. J. W. Solcer her sister. Until recently she lived in the country, outside of Albany.

Miss Moran's condition. She will be serious until to-day, when she began to rally. Barring unlooked for complications she will recover, but her shysicalnes expect she will bear scars of her encounter on her face and head as long as she lives.

STERN SURRENDERS SENSATION IN TO TORONTO POLICE

Wanted by the Federal Authorities, but Will Probably Fight Extradition on Charge in Connection with Contracts.

TORONTO, Ontario, Sept. 9.-Leopold Stern surrendered himself to the police tion is promised in the postal scandal. this afternoon. It is understood that he will fight extradition proceed ugs. He be up before a Magistrate later in eral Grand Jury is declared to be of national prominence. He is equally stern, it is understood, is wanted in as well known as the Postmaster-Gen-Washington to answer a charge of con- eral himself and his arrest will be a spiracy, in connection with a contract for furnishing the Government with great surprise. coulder straps for letter-carriers' mail- The climax of the post-office investi gation will come in his arraignment.

It is understood the Washington Much testimony was taken to-day by authorities will make a charge of emthe Grand Jury in his case and an in-dictment will be returned probably toslement against Stern in order to doubtful whether the United morrow can demand him under the presat status of the case.

BICYCLE FALL MAY KILL.

Special to The Evening World.)

SARATOGA, Sept. 9.—Supt. Hiram W.

sys. of the Empire Spring Company, nd ex-member of the Board of Trushardly survive injuries ne in a bicycle accident near Lake. He ran into a tree and the indictor and the indictor acceptance of th

Mrs. Eleanor Hanesch Invades Was Beaten Into Unconsciousness, but Pluckily Attacked Negro Burglar So Long as Her Strength Lasted.

> SCRATCHED HIS THROAT AND FACE IN STRUGGLE.

While He Escaped, He May Yet Be Identified if Caught by the Marks Inflicted Upon Him by Katherine Moran.

a the sixth floor of Temple Court, West Fourteenth street, Katherine walked into the outer room of his office Moran, the pretty young woman who was met by a woman dressed was beaten into unconsciousness and She made an attempt to bar left for dead by a negro burgiar, told way, but Mr. Gallinger walked to-day how she attacked the negro and around her to his own private room. then in turn was attacked. How she The woman followed him and after choked and fought him, screaming until some words drew a revolver from her she fell to the floor insensible.

Hanesch, fifty-eight years old, and lives at No. 573 Broome street. The lawyer range some clothing in one of the range some clothing in one of the trunks in the basement. Dressed in a was employed by his wife five or six house wrapper, I was wandering abou the upper floors of the house when I heard a noise in the basement. I In German Mrs, Hanesch said to the thought that my sister had gone there instead of going out, and starting down the steps, I called to her. When she

"You know what I mean," said the did not answer I thought that there was some one else in the basement who beturn or catch her arm Mrs. Hanesch "I went down the steps humming a pulled out a revolver of an obsolete tune and not the least frightened or pattern. The clerk rushed in from the suspicious. As I entered the front reception room, grabbed her around the room in the basement I saw that the body and fought for possession of the lid of one of the three trunks that run, which he finally knocked out of her stood against the wall was open. thought this strange, especially as woman was not easily overcome, was the only one who had the keys.

She continued to kick and tussle. She Then, too, I became suspicious because fought until her strength waned. She I could not get an answer to my conwas finally held down by the clerk and tinued calls. I went forward and caught the attorney, and an office boy was hold of the raised trunk lid, when to my horror, I saw a negro crouching behind man Carlson, of the City Hall the trunk. He sprang forward at me. ation, arrived soon after and succeeded in his hand he carried what appeared > Too Frightened to Scream. "My first impulse was to run, but I eemed paralyzed on the spot. I believe

I was too frightened to scream. I man-'What are you doing here?' "The negro advanced toward me and replied: "That's all right. I have a right to be here. I worked here once." shall not be called. Trouble began at t "When I saw him leering at me I beime furious. I sprang at him and out the members of his union because have everywhere added not only to the out the members of his union because have everywhere added not only to the seized him by the throat. He raised his right arm to strike me with the chisel. but I warded off the blow. Then my or The Fuller Company's men on all the Union. is Grossman, counsel for Gallinger, it has the woman had ever given uch business to his client. Strate Deuel held the woman in to of $$600 ball and put her in to of a probation officer, woman acted peculiarly in court, is the general opinion that she is fing from mental derangement. Amount is free failed to the floor and covered mental derangement. The house substance of the woman had been committed in the woman had been committed to a reporter of The gross attended a meeting of the members of the Housesmiths and Bridger, members of the Housesmiths and Bridger

Not a Good Description.

The attack on Miss Moran was re-

While the officials refuse to tell his sion of Salary and Allowances, was one It is understood that the charge is Office Department.

bitration plan.
Parks attended a meeting of the United Board of Building Trades which he called this afternoon at Brevoort Hall and outlined his plan of campalined. He refused, however, to make it possible. Lorg Acre Square, nor on the New Amsterdam Theatre.
Judge McConnell, of the Fuller Company, said this afternoon that the calling out of the men on the Butterick building was causing the construction concern much worry. He would not say if the officials contemplated standing by the sub-contractors, who hold many of the Fuller Jobs. Most of the sub-contractors, who hold many of the Fuller Jobs. Most of the very Employers' Association which Parks is so bitter against. Therefore the Fuller Company is in a quandary, Judge McConnell said that it was well as would be a water the parks is so bitter against. Therefore the Fuller Company is in a quandary.

"Absurd as would be water to be a water twater was a water the intention of the base of the base of the water the figures there water the figure and t too early to decide what the concer

HORSE WAS ACROBATIC.

Turned a Complete Somersault is Collision with Car.

with a north-bound Eighth avenue car

SHIPPING NEWS

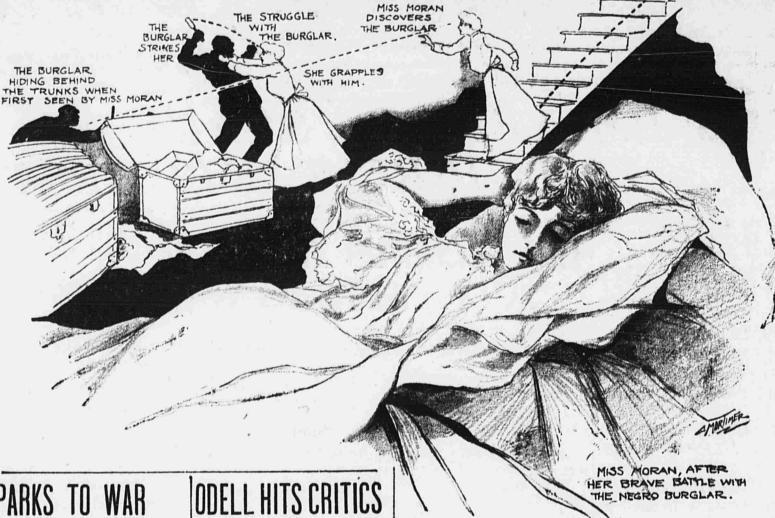

Sim i ma	-
Sun Flace. 5.34 Sun sets. 6	TO-DAY.	visas	7 45
THE TID			Water.
- A.M	PM	A. M. 2.87	P. M. 2.56
Sandy Hook 8.44 Governor's Island 9.00 Hell Gate Ferry 10.53	9.14	4.37	3.24 4.56
	-

ARRIVED.

name it is said that he is not now nor Ki Alba has ever been connected with the Post-The identity of two of the six named by the Grand Jury was made known to-day when it was stated that George W. Beavers, formerly Chief of the Divi INCOMING STEAMSHIPS.

Another of the indictments is against August W. Machen, on a new set of August W. Machen, on a new set of facts. Involving him with Beavers. The otdam. Romer M. New York, san Demings. Germanic, Liverpool. Romaind, Newfoundland. OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS.

PLUCKY KATHERINE MORAN ATTACKED NEGRO BURGLAR UNTIL INE MORAN ATTACKED NEGRO BURGLAR UNTIL SHE WAS BEATEN INTO UNCONSCIOUSNESS BY THE THIEF. FORCED CHECK

Figures Quoted by Him Ques-

Apportionment Law.

tioned. He Still Holds that

New York City Benefits by

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Gov. Odell to-day delivered an address at the County Fair here in which he again spoke for the canals and incidental; answered criticism by New Yorkers. He was introduced by ex-Congressman John H. Moffitt, of this city, President of the Clinton County Agricultural Society.

"Whether or not the present referen the waterways is wise," he said, "there controverted at the time of its inception

as is the present question of enlargement.

ON FULLER CO.

Through Building Trades Fight This Concern, Now Declared Unfair, Has Worked with the Housesmiths' Union.

The George A. Fuller Construction Company, which all through the buildng trades war worked hand in hand with the Housesmiths and Bridgemen's Union, has been declared unfair Sam Parks. He has begun a movement to call out all of the ironworkers belonging to his union who are employed n Fuller work.

The Fuller Company is not a mem f the Employers' Association and has working agreement of its own with Union. By the terms of this agreement all differences are to be settled provides that sympathetic strikes

Trouble began at the Butterick Building yesterday when Sam Parks ordered dustrial and commercial projects which the darkness to shore. longing to the rival union of ironwork- have placed it as the foremost State in

POSTAL FRAUD John Kahn and Harry McEntee, or No. 522 West Forty-seventh street, were driving a light wagon up Central Park West this afternoon. At Sixty-fifth over and above the operation of the local transfer of the State's House this we have made it possible during the present year to add to their funds through the Excise law $4,600,000 over and above the operation of the local transfer of the state's House this we have made it possible during the present year to add to their funds through the Excise law $4,600,000 over and above the operation of the local transfer of the State's House this we have made it possible during the present year to add to their funds through the Excise law $4,600,000 over and above the operation of the local transfer of the State's House this we have made it possible during the present year to add to their funds through the Excise law $4,600,000 over and above the operation of the local transfer of the State's House this we have made it possible during the present year to add to their funds through the Excise law $4,600,000 over and above the operation of the local transfer of Man of National Prominence

Whose Identity Is Kept Secret

Will Be Indicted with Beavers and Machen.

Washington, Sept. 9.—A big sensation is promised in the postal scandal.

Washington, Sept. 9.—A big sensation is promised in the postal scandal.

SHIFFING NEWS.	sembled at Rosedale
Tises. 5.34 Sun sets. 6.21 Moon rises. 7.45 THE TIDES. High Water. Low Water. A.M. P.M. A.M. P.M. Hook. 8.44 9.00 2.37 2.58	Forty-second street, the situation existing Curtis & Blaisdell, n drivers are out of the ing to their leaders, would not permit the Labor Day.
PORT OF NEW YORK,	This the firm in Messrs. Curtis & Bla

This the firm indignantly denies. Messrs. Curtis & Blaisdell declare that there were some of their deliveries which had to be made early on Labor Day. They aver that they offered the teamsters extra pay to start work earlier on that day in order that there might be time for the parade after the deliveries. About 75 per cent. of the old drivers are out as a result. Efforts have been made to arrange a conference with the firm. If they fail there is talk of trying to call out the firm's engineers and firemen.

MISS ROOSEVELT RUNS AUTO. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 9.—Miss Roosevelt, the daughter of the Presi-Roosevelt, the daugnter of the President, has been taking lessons here in running racing automobiles. She appeared on the avenue in a large French machine with Col. John Jacob Astor. She was at the wheel herself. She ruled use machine up the avenue through the jam of carriages.

COAL DRIVERS ON STRIKE.

harge that Firm Wished to Make Them Work on Labor Day.

All of the striking coal teamsters as-

IN CANAL SPEECH BROKER MAGOUN NEARLY DROWNED

Falls from His Yacht Baracoutta in the Sound at Night, and Unable to Climb Aboard, Swims Ashore, and Is Now Ill at Portchester_Yacht Adrift, lum to the people for the enlargement of erage firm of Magoun & Co., No. 59 open. In the pocketbook was a commu-william street, learned to-day that he tation ticket issued to Mr. Magoun by is no question at the present time of the William street, learned to-day that he had a narrow escape from drowning ford Railroad between Mamaroneck and wisdom of the original construction of the Erie Canal, although its necessity last night, when, after falling overboard New York. There were also several priwas as strenuously and determinedly from his yacht in the Sound, off Port- vate papers bearing the broker's name. chester, he was compelled to flounder about in the water for more than an hour before he could make his way in which was finally cut short when it was "From it have followed the vast in-

Mr. Magoun is now at the Park Hotel, learned that the broker had spent the Portchester, suffering from shock and

"Opposed and misunderstood as were

Side of the Water.

records of the Comptroller's department, their accuracy was again questioned.

"Absurd as would be the proposition, let us suppose that it were possible to separate the State from the City of New York, and it would be found that the additional burdens which would be placed upon the city for the care of the prisons, insane and charitable institutions and reformatories and schools would call for an unusual expenditure of $5.39, 116.71, based upon the appropriation for the year 1902, or about $3.700.000 less than their total contribution to the State's treasury.

"To meet this we have made it possible during the present year to add to their Friends of Capt. Bob Wringe, who had decided to make his home here and young girl, Mrs. Nettle Levy, pretty that in time when he becomes a citizen and only twenty-seven years old, killed he may some day sail a defender.

law.
"It is mandatory legislation which gave to New York its present charter, prepared by a non-partisan commission of its own citizens. If these laws, therefore, have worked hardship in any case, the responsibility must rest with its own representatives, and not upon the rural communities."

decided to stay here in 1901, when I decided to stay here in 1901, when I was sailing the Minneola. I would have followed out that determination had it not been for Sir Thomass tempting offer to sail Shamrock III.

"Now, I hope that some day I may sail a cup defender, instead of a challeir employ, accordictly because the firm hem to parade on hem to parade on hem to parade on hem to parade on her beat Reliance. I hadn't a chance to win. At times we had him in a tight place, but Reliance was too fast for us."

Shamrock III. May Stay Here.

Shamrock III. May Stay Here.

It is believed from orders that Sir Thomas Lipton has given that Shamrock III. will remain here with her two sisters. Shamrock II. and Shamrock III. are for sale. Stocks are now being built for the latest challenger. This is another indication that Sir Thomas is to challenge again.

If Capt. Wringe does not change his mind he will live along the Long Island shore. Shamrock III. May Stay Here.

GETS HIGH CHURCH OFFICE. HAVANA, Sept. 9.—Mgr. Chapelle, Apostolic Delegate to Cuba and Porto Rico, yesterday announced the appoint-ment of Mgr. Benaventura Broderick, as Auxiliary Bishop of Havana, Father Broderick came here from Hartford, Conn., and has had charge of the busi-ness affairs of the Church in Cubs.

The police learned that the Baracoutts which was finally cut short when it was night at the Park Hotel after falling overboard from his yacht. For several hours to-day, before the Portchester police discovered that Mr. hotel, it appears that Mr. Magoun had Magoun was safe, they were confront- a very trying experience. The Bara-

Unable to Overcome Her Craving for Whiskey, Mrs. Levy Drank a Quart of It, Mixing Poison with the Last Dram.

Because she could not overcome he salled Shamrock III. against Reliance appetite for whiskey that had been said to-day that the English skipper growing upon her since she was a herself to-day, as her elster did a year

It was away back in July, while down ago.

at the Erie Basin, that Capt. Wrings
The Levys live at No. 215 East first talked of living here. It is said Tenth street, and the husband, Solonow that a wealthy yachtsman is mon, is a hard-workin- cloth sponger, anxious to engage Capt. Wringe to sail He married the woman four years ago, called on her. They found her with a papers were again sent to the Sover-quart of whiskey before her, pouring in drink after drink.

TO BUY CIFTS?

Charles Oakman Had Purchased Jewelry Valued at $95.50 When the Police Arested Him in Brooklyn Store

INTENDED AS FAREWELL PRESENTS TO SWEETHEART

Said He Planned to Commit valuable articles, told the police he had intended to give the goods purchased to a young woman in the neighboras a farewell present, as he intended to commit suicide in a "most sensational manner."

Oakman was held by Magistrate Dooley in the Butler Street Court to-day on the technical charge of vagrancy in order to give the police an opportunity to get evidence of forgery against the young man if possible.

The incidents leading up to the arrest of Oakman are out of the ordinary. Capt. Evans, of the Fourth avenue station, with Detective Tait, of the same station, were walking in Third avenue yesterday afternoon when the captain decided to purchase a new case for his spectacles. He and the detective entered the jewelry store of F. Jobers and found the proprietor in

Told of Big Sale.

have just sold goods valued at $95.50," said he to Capt. Evans. He went on to say, in response to the captain's young man had called at the store and selected jewelr valued at that

"Did he pay the cash?" asked the

"No," replied Joherg, "but he has gone out to get a check indorsed. He asked me to set the jewelry aside, and he will return at 6 o'clock and pay for it."

The jeweller explained that the young man said he knew a prominent dry-goods man very well and would get his indorsement to the check. Capt. Evans had a detective sent to the dry-goods man in question, and learned from him that he had indorsed no checks, and did not intend to.

Caught After Passing Check. .

Shortly before 6 o'clock Capt. Evans secreted himself behind the safe in the soung man was on time and presented a check which Jobers promptly accepted, under instructions from the police. The police will not say whether or not the indorsement of the dry-goods man was forged, but the check was signed by "R. E. Ross."

The young man, who proved to be Oakman, laundry, 16 and 18 Concord st. Brooklyn.

INDORES WANTED, 2 tamily; steady work. IRONERS WANTED, 2 tamily; ateady work ager of the World's Fair School of In struction at St. Louis, has written to the President of the Hackensack Golf Club asking for a photo of the club-house, as it is Manager Davidson's in-tention to pattern the Temple of Fra-ternity after the unique golf club-house. The memoers of the club are particular-ity jubilant over the proposition. A photo will be sent West at once.

COFFEE HEART Barred by Life Insurance Companies.

Coffee directly affects the heart and many Life Insurance Companies now recognize "Coffee Heart" as a well defined disease and refuse insurance to those suffering from this trouble. Leaving off coffee and drinking Postum Food Coffee regularly in its place quickly remedies this and puts the heart normal, healthy and steady I was examined for membership in the 'Woodmen of the World' about a year ago and the examining phy-sician told me that I had Coffee anxious to engage Capt. Wringe to sail He married the woman four years ago, his 70-footer next year, but that the ne-hoping to reform her. As they left told me that I would have to stop or be could not answer for results. He sold it would never again touch liquor.

A friend of the little skipper quotes him as follows:

Appetite Toe Streag.

A they left told me that I had Coffee drinking, and told me that I would have to stop or be could not answer for results. He said I would no doubt find it difficult to quit the use of coffee unless I drank well boiled Postum Food Coffee when asked why he did it, he replied that he "I like America," Capt. Wringe said to this person, "and I am going to make my home here. When I first came here with Capt. Hogarth I fell in love with the country and the people. I really decided to stay here in 1901, when I ways penitent. Her husband tried leaving her without money, but she pawned her wedding ring and household furniture when the craving for whiskey assailed her.

Levy sent for his father a year ago to live with him. The elder Levy is a night watchman. Thus day and night father and son sought to restrain the unhappy wife. Still she found means to drink.

Yesterday two girls who had acted as bridesmalds at Mrs. Levy's wedding called on her. They found her with a

W. L. DOUGLAS Police Declare the Young Man $3.50 SHOE WASH

A LETTER CARRIER'S INDORSEMENT. eo. F. Vann, 221 West 31st St., New York City, a letter carrier, writes: Suicide in a "Most Sensational Manner."

"The test that in my calling I have put your $3.50 shoes to clearly shows that for ease, style and durability they cannot be excelled by any other high class shoe."

This is the reason W. L. Douglas makes and sells more men's $3.50 shoes than any other night class shoe."

This is the reason W. L. Douglas makes and sells more men's $3.50 shoes than any other night class shoes. Corona Colt proves there is value in Douglas $3.50 shoes. Corona Colt is the highest grade patent leather made.

Some and price on bottom. Take no substitute. Fast Color Eyelets used exclusively.

Beys wear W. L. Douglas & Price, $2.00 and $1.75.

Noes by mail, 28 cts. extrn. Illustrated Catalog free.

NEW YORK STOIRS
435 Broadway.
1545-155 Broadway.
1449 Broadway.
1449 Broadway.
1447 Broadway.
1447 Broadway.
1447 Broadway.
1447 Broadway.
1448 Third Avenue.
1456 Kixth Avenue.
1456 Kixth Avenue.
1456 Kixth Avenue.
1456 W. 125th St.
1468 Fifth Avenue.
1476 Fifth Avenue.
1576 W. 125th St.

FURS on the second state of the second state of the second state of the second second Laundry Wants-Female.

WANTED-Feeders and folders on mangle. 320 E. 9th st. family ironer; apply immediately. Mo-side Steam Laundry, 1236 Amsterdam ave. MANUAL A first-class tamily troner, Model whose name the police will not divulge, as a farewell present.

MODEL FOR WORLD'S FAIR.

(Special to The Evening World.)

HACKENSACK, N. J., Sept. 9.—E. B.
Davidson, President and General Manser of the Warld's Feb.

TOUCH THE RIGHT KEY.

heard birds all along the hedge and had tried a scattering shot to kill a Scattering shots don't pay. Precision is what counts. Make up your mind what is best for you to do. then do it and do it hard. This applies particularly to the opportunities for profit that are offered every day in the advertising columns of The World. In this morning's World there are one hundred and two Business Opportunity and For Sale advertisements, each one just ripe for some one. Pick out the one that in omaha, with the result that I received my policy.

"What do I care for life?" Mrs. Levy said.
"I am only a drawback to Sol. I can never cure myself of this cursed habit. I'm going to get drunk and then kill myself."

The visitors got the bottle from her and she fell into a drunken stupor. She as some to-day and after cooking breakfast proceeded to finish all but one drink of the whiskey remaining in the bottle.
This last drink she mixed with carboics.
This last drink she mixed with carboics acid and swallowed. She had been dead several hours when her father-in-law found her.

"Battle Creek, Mich.
Look in each package for a copy of the swallowed. She had been dead several hours when her father-in-law found her.
"She is better off, peer girl," her huss hand said.